Activity Title: Integrated PT for HUMSS Subjects – The Social Concept

Learning Target: To write a concept anchored on the prepared plan
To generate comments, feedbacks and observations on the feasibility, appropriateness and relevance of concept

References: (Author, Title, Pages) M.W.R. Acha and Q.J. Abcede

As discussed in the previous activity, your output for the Culminating Activity will be an info-poster/catalog expounding a concept introduced to you in any of the Humanities and Social Sciences (HUMSS) specialized subjects which you are most interested in. To proceed, try to recall the social concepts you have learned from the following subjects you have previously taken:

- Introduction to World Religions and Belief Systems
- Disciplines and Ideas in the Social Sciences
- Creative Writing
- Disciplines and Ideas in the Applied Social Sciences
- Creative Nonfiction
- Philippine Politics and Governance

Next, on a separate short (8.5" by 11") paper, write the outline (format below) of your info-poster/catalog using the following guide questions:

1. What social concept are you most interested in, and from which HUMSS specialized subject?
2. What is the nature and scope of the selected social concept? Give its definition/s and the subject matters/areas within its scope.
3. How is the social concept viewed by many during this pandemic? Does it play any role in people's lives in the middle of this crisis? What is its significance to the world today?
4. Amidst the COVID-19 pandemic, what can the humanities and social sciences offer to the world?
